Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, April 7.—Potato buyers who have been out in the country report growers are not anxious to sell, in view of the reported demand in the east, and in California. Prices offered in the country range from 40c to 45c per 100 pounds for second-class, which at this time the year hardly pays for the growing and extra hauling necessary. Potatoes cannot be sorted and reacked, according to growers for less than five cents per sack, and also is occasioned by the culls that have to be picked out as a result of sprouting.

Poultry Market Down.
Live poultry was not in heavy receipt today, but prices have dropped to 15c for fat hens. "The cold storage article has about ruined the trade in live fowls," one dealer said. "and we have to drop a cent or two on the pound in order to avoid keeping the fowls over Sunday."
